

LANDING STRONG

Finding Growth Together Following Trauma

SEAGRAM
ASSOCIATES

Our collaborative mental health counselling practice is comprised of mental health professionals who help children, youth, adults, and families create lasting change and enhanced wellness. We provide individual therapy, couples therapy and family treatment.

Part-Time/ Full-Time Registered Psychologist Position Available

We are currently looking for full or a part-time Registered Psychologist to work in our Windsor (Seagram & Associates and Landing Strong) offices. Our team is multi-disciplinary, creative, thoughtful, and fun. We want someone who is interested in being a leader within this evolving organization. To us, leadership is collaborative, respectful, and requires excellent listening skills. You will need to be comfortable within a therapeutic, client-centred environment.

General Description

Landing Strong is a non-profit organization devoted to supporting military members, veterans, first responders and their families impacted by work related trauma exposure. If you are commitment to bettering the lives of people who have served our communities and country as police officers, members of the Armed Forces, paramedics, fire fighters and other similar professions, then we are interested in speaking to you.

Our Mission:

Landing Strong helps those who are suffering find their place within their families and community and, just as importantly, reclaim their identity. Individuals are supported in a safe and inviting community. Support for families is also a key component of our vision.

Within Landing Strong, there is the opportunity for group work, program development and involvement in our intensive, holistic day programming. We focus on building resiliency, promoting health, and when appropriate, supporting successful reintegration back into work.

At Seagram & Associates, we empower our clients with the support and tools they need to enrich their lives, improve their mental health, and inspire growth and development – in life, in work, and in relationships. Our collaborative practice is comprised of mental health professionals who help children, youth, adults, and families create lasting change and enhanced wellness. We provide individual therapy, couples therapy and family treatment.

The Registered Psychologist will be required to function as an autonomous mental health practitioner in collaboration with the Executive/Clinical Director. The position may be tailored to varying specialties or experiences. Of particular interest is a clinician with experience in trauma therapy using any of the following treatment modalities: CBT, EMDR, Prolonged Exposure, Cognitive Processing Therapy, EFT.

HOURS

This can be either a part- or full-time position, depending on the availability of the practitioner.
